Why The International House World Organization?

The International House World Organisation (IHWO) is a network of language schools worldwide that are committed to implementing high standards of quality and innovation in education and training. There are currently over 140 schools in more than 40 countries.

International House was founded in 1953 by John and Brita Haycraft, with the aim of providing an innovative approach to language teaching. IH has remained at the forefront of development in the field of language teaching and in the training of language teachers. International House schools must follow several charters which guarantee school quality*.

Why choose an English language centre accredited by NEAS?

NEAS is recognised internationally as a body that provides quality assurance monitoring and accreditation of English language centres. The primary goal of NEAS is the maintenance of high levels of quality in the provision of English Language Teaching programs and services by ELT centres to the benefit of the industry as a whole and especially for students. NEAS regularly assesses English language centres for compliance with accreditation requirements to ensure that they continue to uphold NEAS standards and abide by their accreditation conditions.

NEAS provides professional judgment as to whether ELT centres meet and continue to meet the Standards and Criteria for ELT Centres. The standards look at the following aspects of the ELT centre's operations (among others):

Standard A: Management and Administration	Standard D: Student Services
Standard B: Premises	Standard E: English Language Programs and Assessment
Standard C: Specialist Staff	Standard F: Educational Resources and Equipment

ELT centres must show compliance with the standards.

Our Courses

English For Every Purpose

IH Brisbane - ALS is an English Language College, registered to offer programs to international students.

The College provides English Language Intensive Courses (ELICOS) to students from many countries. We teach English over six levels from Beginner to Advanced using the most up-to-date teaching methods and equipment. Audiovisual materials from Australia are combined with materials from England, the United States and Canada to give the student a well-rounded knowledge of accents and idioms in all parts of the English speaking world.

Classes are taught by qualified and experienced teachers. The College specialises in preparing students for the IELTS test and for Vocational and University studies in Australia.

IH Brisbane - ALS Courses

A. General English Full Time. CRICOS No. 062145C

General English is taught over six levels:

1. Beginner
2. Elementary
3. Pre-Intermediate
4. Intermediate
5. Upper Intermediate
6. Advanced

IH Brisbane – ALS offers students the chance to study up to 29 hours per week; 20 hours of Core and Skill classes (the minimum you must attend) and 9 more optional hours.

Core Class and Skills Class (20 hours) - Monday to Thursday

From Monday to Thursday, students take their core class and communication skills classes. Attendance in these classes counts towards the attainment of the IH Brisbane – ALS Certificate and the requirements of student visas.

Speak More Class / Homework room (4 hours)

From Mondays to Thursdays students have the option of taking an hour-long conversation class with teachers focused on a particular topic or grammar function.

Friday Elective Class (5 hours)

On Friday mornings, students have the option to focus on (amongst other things) Writing, Task-based Communication, PET or FCE preparation, Test feedback classes or to have IELTS exam practice. Every 3 weeks there is a "Level Up" test which is a test of all macro skills plus grammar and vocabulary. A student who passes the test may move up to the next level. These tests are optional.

On Friday afternoons, students can choose from 2 hour "Clubs" where teachers focus on (amongst other things) Pronunciation, Job Search Skills, Business English Skills, IELTS writing skills or reading or listening in the Book Club or TV Club. Alternatively students have the option of spending those 2 hours taking a cooking class, going on an excursion or playing sport. All of these classes and sessions have a qualified teacher.

B. General English Part Time - 15 hours per week (Mornings only).

This course is available to Australian Residents and students with Visitor Visas, or Working Holiday Visas only. Part-time courses are not available to students who have an Australian Student Visa. You don't need academic qualifications or previous English experience to join this course.

C. IELTS Exam Preparation (Full time 2-36 weeks). CRICOS No. 062147A

This is a full-time, 20 hour per week course designed to prepare students for the IELTS Exam. Students learn the vocabulary and language skills required as well as examination techniques specific to the IELTS Exam.

On Fridays, there are full reading and listening tests in the morning and writing tests in the afternoon. Once every six weeks, students also have a full speaking test to check their progress. There are 3 levels of IELTS Preparation, Intermediate (B1), Upper-Intermediate (B2) and Advanced (C1). Students are also able to study for an additional 9 hours outside these 20.

D. English for Academic Purposes – EAP (Full time 6-12 weeks). CRICOS No. 062146B

This is a full-time, 25 hour per week course designed to prepare students for university or further studies in Australia.

Students get practice in all language skills, grammar functions and academic vocabulary while also listening to lectures, giving presentations and producing reports. The importance of referencing, correct paraphrasing and the avoidance of plagiarism are also taught. Students are able to study in this course for either 6 or 12 weeks. The entry level is Upper-Intermediate (B2).

E. Cambridge First Certificate of English Exam Preparation – FCE (Full time 10-12 weeks). CRICOS No. 062149K

The FCE course begins in January, March, June and September. Students learn the vocabulary, reading, writing, listening and speaking skills as well as the correct use of English required to pass the FCE test.

This course also includes test taking techniques and an intensive study format with plenty of homework.

Only serious students, with an Upper-Intermediate (B2) level of English, who intend to sit for the actual FCE test will be accepted.

F. Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English Exam Preparation – CAE (Full time 12 weeks). CRICOS No. 062148M

The CAE course begins in March and September. Students learn extended versions of the vocabulary, reading, writing, listening and speaking skills as well as the correct use of English required to pass the CAE test.

This course also includes test taking techniques and an intensive study format with plenty of homework.

Only serious students, with an Advanced (C1) level of English, who intend to sit for the actual CAE test will be accepted.

Studying Further

Preparing for Further Study in Australia

When your English is good enough, there are dozens of University and further study courses waiting for you in Brisbane and South East Queensland.

Our website shows a list of some of the courses available for international students. You enter these either with an external English exam result (such as IELTS) or through our Pathways. We can prepare you for further study courses in Australia and give you the English study skills you will need.

Why Choose an IH Brisbane - ALS IELTS Exam Preparation Course?

1. Our teachers are experienced, with proven track records at helping students get the optimal outcomes.
2. In Brisbane, there are ITP(International Test Preparation) courses which are open for current English teachers who wish to become IELTS examiners. IH Brisbane - ALS lends its support to its teachers to do this ITP course.
3. IELTS students can take advantage of our Library and Guided Self Access Centre, where they can borrow books and get individual assistance. In total, they can study up to 33 hours per week.
4. Mock Tests take place every Friday: this helps students improve their exam skills and monitor their progress against genuine IELTS exam criteria.
5. Consistently excellent IELTS results.
6. Writing portfolio to track and improve your writing.

Cambridge ESOL Examinations

The FCE, CAE and CPE examinations are held in Brisbane only a few times each year and coincide with the end of the preparation courses. These exams are very popular in Europe and are still considered to be the most reliable English language testing standard. For more information you can read the information on the Cambridge ESOL Australia website or ask one of our experienced Cambridge Exam Preparation teachers.

International House Brisbane – ALS offers you the opportunity to get a widely respected Cambridge certificate, whilst improving your English in a great learning environment.

Why Cambridge Exams?

Every year more than 3 million people take Cambridge tests to further their plans for work, study, travel or living in another country ... where will they take you? And remember these certificates are valid for life – they never expire.

The exams are recognised around the world by thousands of employers, universities and government ministries as proof of ability to use English.

For more information, you can check out the following website: www.cambridgeesol.org/exams/index.html

CEFR	General English	Academic

Certificate IV in TESOL

073981J - 30920QLD - RTO No. 32044

Already mastered the English language? Learn how to teach it!

The Certificate IV in TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages) is a government-accredited course (RTO No. 32044) that is designed for those who want to get into the field of English language teaching. Use your qualification to become a private tutor or start your own company providing tuition to international students, or go on to teach abroad or in Australia.

How is the course run?

It's an 8 week intensive course. You'll study for an average of 27.5 hours a week face to face, with additional time needed for homework, lesson planning and written assignments.

What will I learn from this TESOL Course?

It places a high value on getting you ready for the real classroom, packed with practical ideas and a practical teaching component.

On the course you'll learn all the skills needed to be an effective and competent teacher of English. This TESOL course will give you the theory, techniques and ideas to plan great lessons and keep your classes on track.

You'll learn how to get on with students, and keep their attention and interest and become confident as a teacher.

You'll also spend a minimum of 14 hours observing fully qualified ESL Teachers, both in real life and on DVD where we will analyse them fully, and you'll spend at least six hours doing assessed practice teaching – getting feedback that will help you develop.

On the course you'll cover (amongst other things)...

- Teaching methodologies
- How to teach Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing Skills
- How to teach pronunciation
- How to analyse a text and use it with a class
- Grammar Skills for English teaching
- Theories of how language is learnt and how people learn
- How to plan effective lessons, and prepare
- The differences between learners of all ages
- Activity-based learning

Who is this course for?

Previous teaching experience isn't required, and the course is available to both Student and Working Holiday Visa holders. You must be over 18 years of age, and have a good level of English – IELTS 5.5 or better.

Course Timetable Outline

TIME	WEEKS 1 - 4	WEEKS 5 - 8

Accommodation in Brisbane

Homestay... Living with an Australian Family

IH Brisbane - ALS can place you with a friendly Australian Homestay family who have been selected by our Homestay Service to suit your requirements. We can also provide a car and driver to meet you at the airport and take you to your Homestay. All of our Homestay families have a genuine interest in international students and know how to make students feel welcome. "Full Board Homestay" means that you get breakfast and an evening meal on weekdays and three meals a day on weekends. Students have their own room and clean bed linen, pillows and blankets are provided.

Each room has a wardrobe, study desk and chair. Homestay in Brisbane is more reasonably priced than some other Australian cities and the standard of accommodation is excellent.

Our homestay families are experienced in the care of English language learners, so they are patient and caring. They will also help you with your English at home.

When you first apply for Homestay you will be asked to complete Homestay Questionnaire, (see our Application Form), so that we can find the Homestay home and family that best suits you. Homestay Arrangement Charge: There is a charge for arranging homestay. This is shown on our Application Form and in the Prices section of our website. If you require Homestay, you will need to pay this charge at the time of enrolment.

If you require airport greeting, you should also pay the airport greeting charge at the time of enrolment.

Please do not pay Homestay weekly charges in advance. These should be paid directly to the homestay family on arrival.

You will need to pay a minimum of four(4) weeks homestay on arrival. Remember, staying with a caring Australian homestay family is the best way to improve your English and make lasting friends on your visit to Australia. You may make wonderful Australian friends whom you will know all your life.
